

PEAK DIGITAL IMAGING SOCIETY
FEBRUARY NEWSLETTER 2023

DEAR PDIS FRIENDS & MEMBERS:

Thank you for attending our first meeting on January 26. We introduced our officers and ourselves, as we restarted our PDIS monthly meetings. We also looked at our mission and vision statements and reviewed our master calendar for 2023. Due to the number of details presented, many of you requested follow-up information. We are making that possible through our PDIS website and Facebook, which will keep you updated throughout the year.

LEADERSHIP: Our 2023 PDIS officers and group leaders are president – Linda C Case. Chair – Bill Young. Advisor – Cas Foste. Treasurer – Bill Case. Information Technology – Chris Nelson. Communications – Larry McGough. Studio Group – Barb Osborne. Learning Group – Chris Nelson. Field Trips – leaders, locations and events to be determined.

PDIS WEBSITE - PDIS FACEBOOK – E-MAILS: These will be maintained by Larry McGough.

PARTNERSHIPS: Kim Costello at Academy Art & Frame. Cas Foste at Cottonwood Center for the Arts. Amy Seltzer at the Buffalo Lodge Bicycle Resort. Studio Groups. Learning Groups.

TWO CALENDARS: Monthly Calendar of PDIS meetings from January through October. The other one details PDIS Exhibits and Group events, which will be updated throughout the year.

RECEPTIONS: Academy Art & Frame Co. welcomes the public to a monthly reception and new artwork event from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. on the 3rd Friday of each month.

NEXT PDIS MEETING: Thursday, February 23, 6:30 p.m. Cas Foste will conduct a workshop for pre-cut competition mats. Linda Kittiel will show us a unique way to protect our artwork. BRING YOUR MAT CUTTER. CAS WILL HELP YOU “TROUBLE SHOOT.”

GROUPS: Both events will be held in APRIL on Tuesday afternoons. Osborne’s painting group will be at her home. Nelson’s photography class will be at Library 21-C. Check our PDIS website.

MARCH 23: Prepare now for the next PDIS competition: “Commanding Views” – emphasizing architecture. You may submit 3 entries. Also, there will be an open category of your choice.

FIELD TRIPS: There are rumors of Field Trips in June, August and November. Stay tuned. If you are willing to lead a field trip in the local area, or have some ideas, please contact an officer.

MONTHLY MEETINGS: Officers request that each attendee signs the log with L.McGough and wears a name tag. Bring your business cards. Participate in our Marketing and SWAP tables – Supplies With A Purpose. Leave a surprise. Invite a friend to our programs and gallery events!
THANK YOU! Respectfully, LCase
