MAY NEWSLETTER 2024

Linda C Case, PDIS President

“It is my intention to present – through the medium of photography – intuitive observations of the natural world which may have meaning to the spectators.” [Ansel Adams]

THANK YOU TO SPEAKER ETHAN CLARK & JUDGE RIC BASCOBERT

PDIS hosted 20 attendees, both seasoned members and new members, who attended our monthly program, April 25, 2024, at Library 21 C, the Venue Room. Ethan spoke of the importance of “Packing Up Your Artwork” properly with quality materials, while Ric was scoring our Abstract Theme / Open competition. Truly interesting and unique meeting!

Congratulations to the winners. You may view them with their award certificates on our PDIS website: Gary Dilts, Jeff Mallo, Michelle Mondragon, Al Puente, Linda Case.

Also, thank you to Cas Foste who led our program and set up for our competition.
Also, thank you to Chris Nelson for crafting the award certificates.
Also, thank you to Al Puente for accepting the role of local flyer distribution.
Also, thank you to Diane Stewart and Brenda Herzinger for help at reception desk.

“MILITARY SALUTE,” May 24, 2024, 6:30 p.m. – 8:30 p.m., Academy Art & Frame, led by Chris Nelson. PLEASE NOTE THE NEW TIME & LOCATION.

AAFC will be hosting military artists for their gallery show. We will have an interactive program with Veterans and guests who appreciate military artwork. If you have any patriotic blood running through your veins, you will enjoy this program! Feel free to bring scrap books, photos, and souvenirs from your service in the US Armed Forces.

SAVE THE DATE: JUNE 7, FRIDAY EVE [5 P.M. – 9 P.M.] Buffalo Lodge Bicycle Resort

Several of our PDIS members entered this bicycle-themed gallery show. This evening will be filled with music, delicious food & other vendors, prizes, and a good time! See you there!
